

Arizona Council on Economic Education

Investing in Students' Futures

Spring & Summer 2010 Workshop Calendar

THE RIGHT START: An Institute for New and Beginning Teachers of Economics

A four-day residential FTE program designed to allow new/beginning teachers of economics (three years economics teaching experience or less) to identify and learn basic economic content and develop lesson plans for effectively teaching the high school economics course. FTE covers costs for lodging, registration, and materials. A $100 expense honoraria will be paid if lodging is not needed. Optional: This institute may be taken for 2 graduate credit hours in economics from Florida Gulf Coast University. Total cost for 2 graduate hours and one transcript is $200. Registration Deadline: March 1, 2010. Download program flyer & application at www.azecon.org.

Registration Fee: NO COST!
($100 refundable deposit required to secure seat)
March 13 - 16, 2010 ♦ Scottsdale

HSBC Institute on The Environment & The Economy:

A four-day residential FTE program for teachers designed to help integrate an understanding of environmental issues into classroom discussion. The focus of the program is to present an understanding of how market forces may be used to solve environmental issues. The program, held in Old Town Scottsdale, AZ, includes hands-on classroom activities, lectures, simulations and a one-day field trip. FTE covers costs for lodging, registration, and materials. A $100 expense honoraria will be paid if lodging is not needed. Optional: This institute may be taken for 2 graduate credit hours in economics from Florida Gulf Coast University. Total cost for 2 graduate hours and one transcript is $200. Registration Deadline: March 1, 2010. Download program flyer & application at www.azecon.org.

Registration Fee: NO COST!
($100 refundable deposit required to secure seat)
April 24 - 27, 2010 ♦ Scottsdale

Stock Market Game

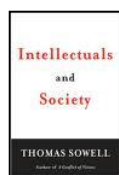

Use the Stock Market Game to enrich your elementary, middle, or high school classroom. New games starting every month. $10 per team. Free enrichment game begins in March 2010! Interested in spending one week at the NYSE? Contact the ACEE for details.

See Simulation dates and register to play at www.azecon.org

ASET Book Club

- Join us for a fun and intellectually stimulating evening as we discuss Thomas Sowell's Book Intellectuals & Society. Light Snacks and certificate for 2.5 hours of professional development provided. E-mail Dr. Katz to be put on the ASET Book Club e-mail list or to RSVP for a book club meeting. NO COST! (RSVP requested) March 25, 2010, 5:45-8:15pm ♦ Scottsdale

Online Econ Courses for Teachers – ACEE and MCC

Prepare to teach the NEW High School Economics course (required for graduation for the graduating class of 2012.) Four 3-credit courses feature college-level content centered around the AZ Economic Standards. Scholarships provided by ACEE cover 2/3 cost of tuition (a $142 value!), course materials. Teachers who take and pass the AEPA Economics exam after completion of ECN211 or ECN212 will be reimbursed for their AEPA exam fee. Download flyer & scholarship application at www.azecon.org

ECN211 Macroeconomics	March 22 - May 14, 2010	ECN212 Microeconomics	June 1 – July 1, 2010
	OR July 6 – Aug 5, 2010
ECN208 Micro Issues	March 22 - May 14, 2010	ECN204 Macro Issues	June 1 – July 22, 2010

Arizona Council on Economic Education

Investing in Students' Futures

EconChallenge 2010 – A fun online competition for Middle & High School Students

The Arizona EconChallenge 2010 will be taking place ONLINE during the week of April 10-16th. All students are welcome to play. The National Semi-Finals for the Adam Smith (Advanced) Division will take place ONLINE, April 26. The National Final Competition will be held May 22-24 in New York City. This year the National Final competition for the David Ricardo (Regular) Division will only be held ONLINE. There is also a NEW Milton Friedman Division for Middle School teams this year. To learn more, register teams, and compete, visit www.econchallenge.org Registration closes March 31st.

Summer University Courses – ACEE Office of Economic Education, U of A

Scholarships for 3/4 tuition made possible through a grant from the Thomas R. Brown Foundation. Lodging stipends available for some programs.

June 1-9	Fundamentals of Business & Economic Decision Making, Dr. Kate Johnson (Grades K-12)
June 1-5	Econ for Elementary Teachers, Debbie Henney & David Katz (Grades K-6)
June 10-16	Microeconomics, Dr. Gerry Swanson (Grades 7-12)
June 17-23	Macroeconomics, Dr. Don Wells (Grades 7-12)
June 30 – July 9	Ethical Economist, Dr. David Schmidt & Dr. Paul Zak

- ✓ Save these dates!
- ✓ Graduate level courses
- ✓ 3 credits each
- ✓ Scholarships Available!

 Econ for Elem. Teachers is a non-credit 4.5 day workshop. See below for more info.

Contact Mark Sammons for more information. sammonsm@email.arizona.edu

Econ for Elementary Teachers – A NO COST 4.5 day Summer Workshop!

Are you uncomfortable with the K-6 Social Studies Standard - Strand 5, ECONOMICS? Maybe even a little bit afraid of it? The Office of Economic Education at U of A is here to help! This workshop will focus on content and practical applications expressly for K-6 Social Studies Strand 5. It will be focused on principles (not on statistics or math). No previous economics courses are necessary! There will be modeling of fun and practical classroom implementation techniques.

TOPICS: Math and Economics
Economics and Children's Literature
Science and Economics
Money and Personal Finance
Creating a classroom mini-economy

- ✓ NO COST for Workshop, Curriculum, Parking, Materials, or Refreshments!
- ✓ Certificate for 35 hours professional development!

Location: U of A, Tucson
Dates: June 1 – 5, 2010

Course funded in part by:
Thomas R. Brown Foundation
Arizona Council on Economic Education

No Cost In-service for Schools & Districts: Economics & Children's Literature K-12

Our featured NO COST in-service for Spring 2010 is "Economics & Children's Literature." The in-services for grades K-8 feature lessons and tips for teaching economics using over 125 popular children's literature titles from Holes to Cloudy with a Chance of Meatballs. Our high school in-service features titles like Animal Farm, Anthem and even Twilight! To scheduling an in-service, contact Dr. David Katz, Program Coordinator

E-mail: programs@azecon.org ♦ Phone: 480.368.8020

To register for workshops by mail or fax visit the workshop page at www.azecon.org
Online registration available to our e-mail contacts. Join our e-mail contact list at www.azecon.org
For more information contact Dr. David Katz at programs@azecon.org